

All walks start from the Village Hall car park, which is located just past the Church, on the left-hand side of the road opposite the Village Hall.

The walks are not suitable for wheelchairs.

Dog walkers are asked to respect the farmers by keeping their dogs under control at all times and to use the dog bin which is situated on the wall of the Old Rectory, half way down the main street of the village.

Walk.	Sampford Brett, Williton, Sampford Brett
Distance	2 miles
Time	1 hour

The walks are not suitable for wheelchairs.

Dog walkers are asked to respect the farmers by keeping their dogs under control at all times and to use the dog bin which is situated on the wall of the Old Rectory, half way down the main street of the village.

From the car park turn right past Brett Water Cottage and the Church. On the left is the former schoolhouse and school, now both private residences. On the wall is the coat-of-arms of the endowed the village. At the junction by the hill and down to the Sribbens Lane, named cottages on the right.

Fuller-Acland-Hood family who school in 1868.

Church continue straight on up the A358. This road is known locally as after a former resident in one of the

Cross the A358 carefully. Take the track straight ahead [WL 20/5] which goes to the left of the garage workshop and continue past Sampford Mill Farm.

Bearing left, go through the gate signed for Williton, with a Macmillan Way marker and follow the path along the hedge [WL 20/8]. Continue through the gates until the outskirts of Williton are reached. In the corner of the field, instead of turning right onto a short track into Williton itself, turn left and follow the hedge up the hill, turning left at the top and then shortly afterwards right across and up the hill [WL

20/7]. At the top of the field there is evidence of a former quarry here. On the right at the top there is a stile which joins a short track which continues straight on to the A358 at Raglan's Cross. Cross this road carefully. Take the road straight ahead past houses on both sides. The road descends a hill, known as the Rocks and comes out at crossroads at the bottom of the hill. Turn left into the main street of Sampford Brett and continue towards the Church. At the junction by the Church turn right and the car park is on the left opposite the Village Hall.